This ALSA FLEECE INSTRUCTIONAL CLINIC is being presented for new ALSA Fiber enthusiasts, Alpaca and/or Llama Fleece Judges as a refresher course (required every 3 years) and for ALSA Alpaca and/or Llama Fleece Apprentices.

This Clinic is being held in conjunction with a LANA hosted Fiber and Fleece Information Day; ALSA Attendees will participate in the demonstrations of Sorting, Grading, Cleaning, Skirting and Preparing Fleeces for Show. Also included will be Educational information from Fiber Processors and Mills for educational purposes regarding Selection and Evaluation of fiber for different products.

TRAINING for Judging of WALKING FLEECE Classes will be conducted at Wild Oaks Llama Ranch and Opus Two Alpacas to provide opportunity for Senior ALSA Judges to acquire knowledge & additional combined ALSA JUDGE certification capabilities.

This Clinic may be approved for BEGINNER JUDGE & APPRENTICESHIP activity, but not as Final CERTIFICATION. Detailed information will be sent on receipt of your application. Fee includes Clinic Instruction Materials and full activity participation.
