

ALPACA & LLAMA SHOW ASSN. INC

TABULATION OF Intermediate Youth CHAMPIONS GRAND AND RESERVE

REQUIREMENTS:

1. Youth must be entered in the all three of the following classes using the same animal;
  - A. Intermediate Obstacle
  - B. Intermediate Pack
  - C. Intermediate Public Relations
2. The number of points accumulated from each class placing must be determined by the ALSA Point Chart (Below)
3. The youth with the highest point total is Grand Champion and the youth with the second highest is Reserve Champion.
4. There must be 8 entries in the Obstacle Division for Intermediate Youth Champion to be credited in the ALSA Award System. Under 8, Named Grand and Reserves qualify for the ALSA National and Regional Competitions.
5. Ties occurring in the highest point total must be broken by taking the Youth placing highest in Intermediate Obstacle to be Champion with the second highest score in Intermediate Obstacle going to the Intermediate Youth Reserve Champion

Of Entries	Placing
	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th	6th	7th	8th	9th	10th
3 - 4	1
5	2	1
6	3	2	1
7	4	3	2	1
8-15	5	4	3	2	1
16-23	6	5	4	3	2	1
24 - 31	7	6	5	4	3	2	1
32 - 39	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1
40 - 47	9	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1
48 - 55	10	9	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1

Take the number of entries shown in the class and follow over to the column under the placing in the class and you will find the number of points that the youth receives for that class. For example: If there were six entries shown and the youth finishes third in the class, then the youth would receive one point on the ALSA Point Chart.
