

Jackpot Versatility Awards

at the 2011 ALSA Grand National Show

The Llama Association of North American, (LANA), is proud to host the 2011 ALSA Grand National Jackpot Versatility Champion Awards. California Artisan, Nanci Sutton, has designed stunning Award Medallions in addition to beautiful Embroidered Briefcase Awards for all of the Jackpot Versatility winners.

Jackpot Versatility Divisions:

Versatility Grand Champion Male Llama
Versatility Reserve Grand Champion Male Llama

Versatility Grand Champion Female Llama
Versatility Reserve Grand Champion Female Llama

Versatility Grand Champion Non-Breeder Llama
Versatility Reserve Grand Champion Non-Breeder aLlama

The Highest Scores will be awarded Cash and the beautiful Awards

Entry Guidelines:

- * Each llama must be entered into at least 3 of the listed eligible classes below.
- * Each llama is required to be in a halter class and at least 1 performance class.
- * Owners may enter more than one llama into the Jackpot Versatility.
- * Each llama's points are calculated separately using the ALSA Point Chart.
- * Entry fee is $25 per llama entered.
- * All participants must be entered before the start of the Pleasure Driving Class.
- * There is no requirement that the handler be the owner or that the same handler be used for all classes.
- * Entries may be made on-line or at the Grand National Show. If not entering on-line, please complete the Jackpot entry form on website and make checks payable to LANA.
- * All monies paid into the Jackpot Versatility will be returned as premiums to the winners.
- * The highest scores from eligible classes will be awarded Cash and the beautiful awards.

Eligible Classes for the Jackpot Versatility:

Halter: Suri Wool, Light Wool, Medium Wool, Heavy Wool, & Non-Breeder

Performance: Novice Pack, PR & Obstacle. Advanced Pack, PR & Obstacle. Masters Pack, PR & Obstacle. Obstacle Driving & Pleasure Driving.

Llama Fiber: Shorn Fleece: Suri, Double Coat, Single Coat. Walking Fleece: Suri, Double Single Coat

Entry for the Jackpot Versatility can be made on-line or with the entry form at <http://www.alsashow.net/jackpotentry.pdf>