

ALSA NATIONAL

YOUTH VERSATILITY AWARD

Each year since 2009, the ALSA Youth Committee, has awarded the National Youth Versatility Award to the youth with the highest total points earned from all five offered youth classes at the annual ALSA National Show of Champions. The award is given in each of the three age divisions: Junior, Intermediate, and Senior. Each winning youth is presented with a National Versatility award jacket as pictured below.

Guidelines:

1. Eligibility is limited to youth entered in all offered youth classes: Showmanship, Obstacle, Public Relations, Pack, and Youth Judging.
2. Three awards will be given each year to the top point person in each age division: Junior Intermediate, and Senior divisions.
3. Points will be figured as follows as long as there are more than 3 in the class. Points will not be figured as to the ALSA Award Chart.
